

Sick Around the World

Can the U.S. learn anything from the rest of the world about how to run a health care system?

T.R. Reid is a veteran foreign correspondent for The Washington Post, a commentator for National Public Radio and the author of nine books, including three in Japanese. He is currently working on his 10th book, titled We're Number 37!, in which he compares America's health care system to others around the world. It is scheduled to be published by Penguin Press in early 2009.

Come see the movie:

Sick Around the World

FRONTLINE producer Jon Palfreman of the U. of O. Dept. of Journalism teams up with veteran Washington Post foreign correspondent T.R. Reid to find out how five other capitalist democracies – the United Kingdom, Japan, Germany, Taiwan and Switzerland – deliver health care, and what the United States might learn from their successes and their failures.

Monday, Oct. 13th, at 6:30 pm

EJAG is sponsoring the showing of the movie Sick Around the World at First Unitarian Church of Portland, 1011 SW 12th Ave. in Buchan Hall. Prior to the movie, Jonathan Ater, First Church member, and Vice-Chair of the Oregon Health Fund Board will present a summary of the Oregon Health Fund Board Proposal, followed by a Q&A session. Public health care discussion to follow the movie. Suggested donation: $1-$20 (no one turned away).