What drives your business? Are your business practices in line with who you are and the life you want to live?

This workshop will give you an effective and holistic framework to respond to the current financial times and to help your clients move forward with confidence.

Our workshops will explore:

- New perspectives for integrated financial health.
- A long-term orientation to serving each client (with some helpful lenses to assist).
- Understanding your own motivation patterns and those of your clients.
- Tools to help move clients toward purchasing decisions.
- A deeper understanding of value-based wealth building.

We look forward to helping you take a fresh look at your business! We hope you'll join us!
